Holiday 2019

“For if God does not for a moment tire of giving us good things, how can we tire of thanking Him for these good things?” ~ St. Nikolai Velimirovich

Wishing you and your family a blessed Thanksgiving and a very Merry Christmas!

In this season, families prepare to gather for festive meals and fellowship at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Every year, St. Mary of Egypt makes plans to provide our local families in need with traditional holiday foods, including turkeys, roasts, chickens and special side dishes, to enrich and supplement our usual provision.

With your donation in any amount, St. Mary of Egypt will be able to support the less fortunate in Cleveland and spread holiday comfort and joy. Thank you for helping sustain our ministry at this time of year and beyond.

Left: Volunteers Nick and Bonnie sign clients in at distribution.

All clients are encouraged to sign up for SNAP (food stamps) and other federal benefits through the Greater Cleveland Food Bank help line.

Upcoming Distribution Dates:

Thanks to all our volunteers who have given of their time this summer to make food bags, unpack food deliveries, organize the stock, clean, and offer assistance at our monthly distribution.

May God bless you all!
