TROPARION OF ST. MARY OF EGYPT
In you, O Mother Mary, the faithful image of God shone forth, for you carried your cross and followed Christ. You taught by your deeds how to spurn the body, for it passes away, and how to value the soul, for it is immortal, wherefore your soul is forever in happiness with the angels.

PROCLAMATION

City of Cleveland
 Jane L. Campbell, Mayor

In Recognition Of

THE ST. MARY OF EGYPT ORTHODOX MISSION & MONASTERY

WHEREAS, on behalf of the citizens of the City of Cleveland, I am honored to offer this Proclamation in recognition of the St. Mary of Egypt Orthodox Mission & Monastery; and

WHEREAS, the St. Mary of Egypt Orthodox Mission & Monastery was established in 1992 under the Ecumenical Patriarchate with the blessing of His Eminence, Metropolitan Maximos; and

WHEREAS, St. Mary of Egypt serves the needy by providing food, shelter, job referrals, baby needs, furniture, cars, clothes, and other outreach programs, and they continue to offer assistance to people in the community, visitors, guests, and sick children from around the world; and

WHEREAS, with phone lines open 24 hours a day, St. Mary of Egypt is able to serve those in need 365 days a year, and maintain several outreach programs that primarily focus on women, children, and refugee families.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Jane L. Campbell, the 55th Mayor of the City of Cleveland, do hereby offer this Proclamation in recognition of the St. Mary of Egypt Orthodox Mission & Monastery. I encourage all citizens to join me in recognizing the caring efforts of St. Mary of Egypt.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have set my hand and caused the Corporate Seal of the City of Cleveland to be affixed on this 7th day of September in the year 2003.
